与此同时，本会也成立青年企业家委员会和女企业家委员会，以凝聚青年企业家与女企业家的力量，培养新领导层作为推动会务发展的臂膀。

随着中国的崛起，本会在促进马中经贸发展方面，扮演着举足轻重的角色，不仅与马来西亚各政府部门、工商团体及中资企业协会与机构保持密切合作，也跟中国商务部与各省级行政单位、中国驻马大使馆经商处、中国国务院侨办、侨联、中国国际贸易促进委员会、中国海外交流协会、中国–东盟博览会秘书处、中国–东盟商务与投资峰会秘书处、中国国际商会、中华全国工商业联合会、中国中小企业国际合作协会、中国外商投资企业协会等保持联系。

Founded in 1990, Malaysia-China Chamber of Commerce (MCCC) is a non-governmental, non-profit, multi-ethnic and independent business association.

MCCC aims at promoting interaction, cooperation and development in trade, investment and other industrial and commercial fields between Malaysia and China as well as protecting the interests of our members.

MCCC has 9 state branches in Malaysia, including Malacca, Perak, Johor, Penang, Terengganu, Sabah, Sarawak, Pahang and Kedah-Perlis. Currently, MCCC has over 2,300 corporate members, covering trade, manufacturing, finance, agriculture, real estate, tourism, education, consultation, services and other industries.

Meanwhile, MCCC also established the Young Entrepreneurs Committee and Women Entrepreneurs Committee to unify youth and women entrepreneurs, fostering new leadership and becoming an important wing to promote the development of chamber affairs.

Following the rise of China, MCCC has become increasingly important as a platform to promote Sino-Malaysian economic and trade development. On top of forming tight cooperation with government agencies, business associations and China Enterprise Association in Malaysia, we also maintain close relationship with relevant China government agencies such as the Economic and Commercial Counsellor's Office of the Embassy of the People's Republic of China in Malaysia, Overseas Chinese Affairs Office of the State Council (OCAOSC), All-China Federation of Returned Overseas Chinese (AFROC), China Council for the Promotion of International Trade (CCPIT), China Overseas Exchange Association (COEA), China-ASEAN Expo (CAEXPO) Secretariat, China-ASEAN Business and Investment Summit (CABIS) Secretariat, China Chamber of International Commerce (CCOIC), All-China Federation of Industry and Commerce (ACFIC), China International Cooperation Association of SMES (CICASME), China Association of Enterprises with Foreign Investment (CAEFI) and so forth.

In addition to frequent reception of delegations from various provinces and cities in China, MCCC also organises, co-organises or participates in exhibitions, trade and investment fairs. Under the premise of creating a win-win situation, MCCC will continue to promote Sino-Malaysia economic and trade development and investment cooperation.

MALAYSIA-CHINA ENTREPRENEURS CONFERENCE

简介

INTRODUCTION

随着中国于21世纪初迅速崛起，马来西亚中国经济贸易总商会（马中总商会的前身）深刻洞察到中国与东盟之间日益紧密的经济联系。2002年，时任总会长丹斯里颜清文发起首届“东盟—中国合作论坛”，以“共建全球最大自贸区”为主题，邀请东盟十国及中国企业家齐聚吉隆坡，开创多边企业交流与经贸合作的先河。

2011年，马中总商会创办首届“马中经贸投资国际大会”，其后发展为“马中企业家大会”，并持续举办至今。大会已发展成为马中总商会的旗舰年度国际活动，致力于深化马中两国企业，尤其是中小企业之间的经贸合作，推动产业转型升级、促进技术交流，并结合两地资源优势，实现互利共赢。

自2011年首届大会在吉隆坡举办以来，大会于2014年首次走出马来西亚，在中国厦门成功举行，开启了“海上丝绸之路”合作的新篇章。此后，马中企业家大会逐步形成马中两地轮流举办的模式，先后在成都、南京、福州、海口等中国城市举行，持续扩大区域影响力。历届大会均吸引数百至上千名来自马来西亚、中国及其他地区的企业家参与，成为促进马中经贸交流与合作的重要桥梁。

今年，第十六届马中企业家大会于11月12日在马来西亚雪兰莪州沙登华总大厦隆重举行。本届大会继续秉持促进马中经贸合作的宗旨，致力于搭建两国企业交流与合作的平台，促进商业对接、深化产业协作、拓展国际商机，并携手探索多元化的发展机遇，为马中经贸关系的持续深化与共同发展注入新动力。

With China's rapid rise in the early 21st century, the Malaysia-China Chamber of Commerce (MCCC), formerly known as the Malaysia-China Economic and Trade Chamber of Commerce, recognised the growing economic ties between China and ASEAN. In 2002, the then President, Tan Sri Ngan Ching Wen, initiated the inaugural ASEAN-China Partnership Forum in Kuala Lumpur under the theme "Building the World's Largest Free Trade Area". The forum brought together entrepreneurs from all ten ASEAN member states and China, paving the way for multilateral business exchanges and economic cooperation.

In 2011, MCCC launched the inaugural Malaysia-China Trade and Investment International Conference, which subsequently evolved into the Malaysia-China Entrepreneurs Conference (MCEC). Since then, the conference has become MCCC's flagship annual international event, dedicated to strengthening economic and trade cooperation between Malaysian and Chinese enterprises, particularly small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs). It promotes industrial transformation and upgrading, facilitates technology exchange, and leverages the strengths and resources of both countries to achieve mutual benefits and shared growth.

Since its inaugural edition in Kuala Lumpur in 2011, the MCEC expanded beyond Malaysia for the first time in 2014, with the conference successfully held in Xiamen, China, marking a new chapter in cooperation along the Maritime Silk Road – China's Belt and Road initiatives. The conference subsequently adopted a rotating hosting model between Malaysia and China, with editions held in Chinese cities such as Chengdu, Nanjing, Fuzhou and Haikou. Over the years, it has continued to expand its regional reach, attracting thousands of entrepreneurs from Malaysia, China and other countries. The MCEC has thus established itself as an important platform for strengthening Malaysia-China economic and trade engagement.

The 16th Malaysia-China Entrepreneurs Conference will be held on 12 November 2026 at Wisma Huazong in Seri Kembangan, Selangor, Malaysia. Continuing its commitment to strengthening Malaysia-China economic and trade relations, the conference serves as a platform in facilitating commercial connection, business exchanges, business matching, industrial collaboration and exploration of international business opportunities. Together we explore diverse business development opportunities, providing momentum into the continuous deepening and joint development of Malaysia-China economic and trade relations.

马来西亚首相拿督斯里安华依布拉欣
YAB Dato' Seri Anwar Ibrahim,
Prime Minister of Malaysia

欣悉马来西亚—中国总商会（MCCC）主办今年的马中企业家大会，我谨以最热烈的祝贺，并向来自中国的朋友们，以及所有长期致力于推动两国经贸与友好关系的人士，致以诚挚问候。

本届大会以“千年商道，厚德载物”为精神主旨。在我看来，这句话道出了马中关系的根基所在——以诚信为本，以宽厚相待。

马来西亚与中国是隔海相望的挚友，是志同道合的伙伴。六百多年前，郑和船队曾停靠马六甲，为这片土地带来友谊与商机。今天，两国关系正处于历史上最好的阶段。去年，习近平主席时隔十二年对马来西亚进行国事访问，两国一致同意构建高水平战略性马中命运共同体，为合作擘画了新的蓝图。

经贸与投资始终是马中关系中最坚实、最具活力的支柱。中国已连续十七年成为马来西亚最大贸易伙伴。2025年，双边贸易额达5419亿令吉；今年上半年，双边贸易额又增长了30%。东海岸铁路（ECRL）即将通车；“两国双园”持续升级；数字、绿色和旅游经济前景广阔。

两国企业的智慧与心血铸造了这些辉煌成就。RCEP 与中国—东盟自贸区3.0正在为我们的企业打开更广阔的市场。中小企业是两国贸易的毛细血管；中小企业的活力，就是两国经济的活力。

企业需要稳定、公平和可预期性。因此，政府持续改善营商环境以支持中小企业。在2027年财政预算案中，我们下调了微型及中小企业的所得税税率，提高了微型融资和融资担保额度，并推出更多促进投资与培育人才的措施。每一家守法经营的企业，都应当能够充满信心地在马来西亚大展宏图、公平竞争。

我坚信，唯有双向奔赴、互利共赢，合作才能长久。我衷心祝愿本届大会圆满成功，盼马中友谊与经贸纽带如大江入海——奔涌向前，生生不息。

I am delighted to learn that the Malaysia-China Chamber of Commerce (MCCC) is hosting this year's Malaysia-China Entrepreneurs Conference. I extend my warmest congratulations and my sincere greetings to our friends from China and to all who have long worked to advance trade and friendship between our two countries.

This year's Conference takes as its spirit the words “A Millennium of Trade, Built on Virtue”. To my mind, these words capture the very foundation of Malaysia-China relations — building on integrity and treating one another with generosity.

Malaysia and China are close friends across the sea, and partners who walk the road together. More than six hundred years ago, the fleet of Admiral Zheng He called at Melaka, bringing friendship and opportunity to this land. Today, our relations stand at their best in history. Last year, President Xi Jinping made a state visit to Malaysia after twelve years, and our two countries agreed to build a high-level strategic Malaysia-China community with a shared future, setting out a new blueprint for cooperation.

Trade and investment have always been the most solid and most vibrant pillar of Malaysia-China relations. China has been Malaysia's largest trading partner for seventeen consecutive years. In 2025, two-way trade reached RM541.9 billion, and in the first half of this year it grew by a further thirty per cent. The East Coast Rail Link (ECRL) will soon open; the Two Countries, Twin Parks continue to upgrade; and the digital, green and tourism economies are full of promise.

These achievements carry the sweat and wisdom of enterprises on both sides. RCEP and the China-ASEAN FTA 3.0 are opening up even wider markets for our businesses. Small and medium enterprises are the capillaries of trade between our two countries; their vitality is the vitality of both our economies.

Businesses need stability, fairness and predictability. The Government therefore continues to improve the business environment and to support small and medium enterprises. In the 2027 Budget, we reduced the income tax rate for MSMEs, raised micro-financing and financing guarantee facilities, and introduced further measures to facilitate investment and talent. Every law-abiding enterprise should be able to grow with confidence and compete fairly in Malaysia.

I firmly believe that only through two-way commitment and mutual benefit can cooperation endure. I wish this year's Conference every success and may the friendship and economic ties between Malaysia and China flow like a great river to the sea — surging, and never ceasing.

It gives me great pleasure to extend my warmest congratulations to the Malaysia-China Chamber of Commerce (MCCC) on its 36th Anniversary and to the 16th Malaysia-China Entrepreneurs Conference (MCEC 2026).

Over the years, I have developed a warm and valued relationship with MCCC. I have always appreciated the Chamber's commitment to serving the business community, bringing people together and creating meaningful opportunities for dialogue and collaboration. Whenever I have the opportunity to attend MCCC's activities, I am encouraged by the enthusiasm of its members and the spirit of friendship that brings entrepreneurs from different backgrounds together to exchange ideas and explore new possibilities. These enduring bonds are worth cherishing, nurturing and passing on to future generations.

The theme of this year's Conference, "A Millennium of Trade, Built on Virtue," carries a timeless message. Business is not measured solely by commercial success, but also by the integrity with which it is conducted, the trust it builds and the contributions it makes to society. In an increasingly complex and competitive world, these values remain essential foundations for lasting partnerships and sustainable progress.

Looking ahead, I hope MCCC will continue to build on its strong foundations while embracing new ideas and opportunities. By remaining responsive to the evolving needs of the business community, encouraging innovation and empowering the next generation of entrepreneurs, the Chamber can further strengthen its role as a platform for meaningful engagement, shared learning and long-term growth.

I also look forward to seeing MCCC continue to nurture the spirit of friendship and mutual respect, turning shared aspirations into meaningful action and bringing businesses and communities closer together. May the Chamber's next chapter be marked by renewed vitality, greater achievements and an enduring commitment to creating value for society.

My heartfelt wishes for the success of the 16th Malaysia-China Entrepreneurs Conference and for MCCC's continued growth and success. May all its members and the wider business community enjoy lasting prosperity and fulfilment in the years ahead.

马来西亚投资、贸易及工业部副部长YB沈志勤
YB Sim Tze Tzin,
Deputy Minister of Investment,
Trade and Industry, Malaysia

值此马来西亚–中国总商会（马中总商会，MCCC）隆重举办第十六届马中企业家大会（MCEC 2026）暨成立三十六周年之际，我谨致以最热烈的祝贺！

马中两国长期以来保持着紧密的经贸合作关系。随着全球经济格局的持续演变，我们的合作必须超越传统的买卖伙伴关系，迈向更深层次的产业协同、技术交流与战略融合。

东盟市场充满生机与活力，拥有丰富的资源和年轻的劳动力；而中国则在制造业、科技创新及产业发展方面具备独特优势。双方强强联手，必将开启互利共赢的全新机遇。

马来西亚政府将一如既往地致力于营造良好的投资与营商环境，积极引进高质量投资，并鼓励跨国企业与本地企业建立更紧密的合作关系。我特别鼓励企业采用合资经营模式，以实现优势互补、促进技术转移、共享市场并分散风险，从而带动本地供应链及中小企业的成长。

同时，来马投资的企业应尊重当地文化、社会习俗及多元文化的国情，在合规守法的前提下运营，以实现长期可持续的发展。面对人工智能与数字转型的浪潮，企业必须积极推进自动化、研发创新及人才培养，不断提升竞争力与韧性，为迎接下一阶段的经济增长做好准备。

多年来，马中总商会在推动两国工商界交流与合作方面发挥了至关重要的作用，是连接企业、推动投资及开拓市场机遇的重要桥梁。我相信，本次大会将进一步深化马中经贸联系，促成更多务实合作，为两国企业谱写共享共赢的新篇章。

衷心祝愿第十六届马中企业家大会圆满成功！祝愿与会贵宾事业蒸蒸日上、合作成果丰硕！

On the occasion of the 16th Malaysia-China Entrepreneurs Conference (MCEC 2026) organized by the Malaysia-China Chamber of Commerce (MCCC), alongside its 36th Anniversary, I wish to extend my heartiest congratulations!

Malaysia and China have long enjoyed close economic and trade relations. As the global economic landscape continues to evolve, our collaboration must transcend traditional buyer-seller relationships and progress toward deeper industrial synergy, technological exchange, and strategic integration.

The ASEAN market offers vibrant vitality, abundant resources, and a young workforce, while China possesses distinct advantages in manufacturing, technological innovation, and industrial development. Joining hands will unlock new opportunities for mutual benefit and win-win outcomes.

The Government of Malaysia remains committed to fostering a favorable investment and business environment to attract high-quality investments and encourage multinational corporations to forge stronger partnerships with local enterprises. I particularly encourage businesses to adopt joint-venture models to leverage complementary strengths, facilitate technology transfer, share markets, and mitigate risks—thereby driving the growth of local supply chains and small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs).

At the same time, businesses investing in Malaysia should respect local culture, social customs, and our multicultural national context, operating in full compliance with the law to achieve long-term, sustainable development.

In the face of AI and digital transformation, enterprises must actively pursue automation, R&D innovation, and talent development to enhance their competitiveness and resilience, preparing themselves for the next phase of economic growth.

Over the years, MCCC has played a vital role in promoting exchanges and cooperation between the business communities of both nations, serving as a key bridge for connecting enterprises, driving investment, and exploring market opportunities. I trust that this conference will further deepen Malaysia-China trade and economic ties, yield more pragmatic collaborations, and write a new chapter of shared success for enterprises from both countries.

I wish the 16th MCEC a resounding success, and may all guests enjoy continuous success and fruitful partnerships!

On behalf of the China Embassy in Malaysia, I would like to extend my warm congratulations on the successful convening of the 16th Malaysia-China Entrepreneurs Conference,and my sincere greetings to the business communities of both countries. Linked by mountains and seas, our friendship passes from generation to generation. This grand gathering serves as a broad platform for business friends of China and Malaysia to meet, communicate and exchange ideas, and builds a bridge for pragmatic cooperation to facilitate China-Malaysia economic and trade integration.

China and Malaysia are trustworthy good neighbours and partners. Guided by the strategic vision of the leaders of the two countries, efforts to build a high-level strategic China-Malaysia community with a shared future are advancing steadily, ushering in a new "Golden 50 Years" for bilateral ties. As profound changes unfold at an accelerated pace across the world, China and Malaysia have worked hand in hand, carried forward traditional friendship, consolidated political mutual trust, promoted the alignment and mutual reinforcement of China's 15th Five-Year Plan and Malaysia's 13th Malaysia Plan, and advanced the in-depth implementation of the five-year plan for bilateral economic and trade cooperation, delivering more mutually beneficial outcomes to the peoples of both countries.

Enterprises are the mainstay of bilateral economic and trade cooperation. We look forward to entrepreneurs from both countries treasuring this rare opportunity, upholding the vision of win-win cooperation, operating in compliance with laws, integrating into local communities and learning from one another. We may further deepen cooperation in traditional areas such as trade and investment, and actively explore collaboration in emerging fields including advanced manufacturing. May China-Malaysia friendship take root and flourish and endure through rounds of pragmatic cooperation.

Tides rise over Nanyang, hearts unite for a shared future. I sincerely wish this conference a complete success. May all entrepreneurs enjoy fruitful negotiations and harvest rewarding outcomes, as we march together toward a promising future of shared opportunities and common prosperity.

2026年马中企业家大会工委会顾问丹斯里吴明璋
Tan Sri Goh Ming Choon,
Advisor, Organising Committee, Malaysia–China Entrepreneurs Conference 2026

对于马中合作的下一程，我看到的不是更大的场面，而是更细的分工。过去谈合作，谈的是贸易量、项目数、投资额、谁是投资方等；未来五年，更该谈的是同一条产业链上，谁做哪一段。中国有完整的工业体系与庞大的消费市场；马来西亚有区位、有资源、有多语人才，也是对接伊斯兰金融与东盟市场的门户。我们不是买卖双方，而是同一条生产线的上下游。

地缘政治风险正把全球供应链一段一段切开。关税、出口管制与技术壁垒，让“最低成本”不再是唯一标准，“企业的持续性发展”成了新问题。对本地企业，这是压力，也是位置的重估，因为世界目前正需要一个可靠的节点，而我们恰好站在这里。

但位置不等于机会。要把位置变成订单，须两端同时用力：在需求端，我们必须积极推动中国与东盟消费升级，而不是等人来采购；供应端，把中国的设备、技术与中间品，接上本地的人才、土地与认证能力，压成本、提品质。两端接通，企业才不是被动接单。

政府与区域伙伴给的，是确定性。预算案的税务与融资安排、RCEP 与自贸区3.0的原产地规则、东盟—中国—海合会的通道，都在把“不确定”变成“可计算”。企业要学的，是如何使用它们。

这一届大会，我们把重心从台上移到台下：采购商坐在制造商对面，技术方坐在应用方旁边，政策制定者听见一线的声音。我们不要签完就放进抽屉的备忘录，要的是三个月后还能跟进、还能落地的合作。

风浪不会因为开会而停下。但企业可以，因为认识了对面那个人，而多一条出路。

The next stage of Malaysia–China cooperation is not, in my view, about bigger ceremonies. It is about a finer division of labour. In the past we spoke of trade values, project counts, investment amount, and who was investing. Over the next five years the better question is this: on a single value chain, who does which part? China has a complete industrial system and a vast consumer market. Malaysia has location, resources, a multilingual workforce, and a gateway position linking Islamic finance with ASEAN markets. We are not buyer and seller. We are upstream and downstream on the same line.

Geopolitical risk is now cutting global supply chains into segments. Tariffs, export controls and technology barriers have made lowest cost no longer the only criterion; "can I still get it, reliably and consistently" has become the new question. For Malaysian businesses this is pressure, but it is also a revaluation of position. When the world needs one more dependable node, we happen to stand on that spot.

Position, however, is not opportunity. Turning position into orders takes effort at both ends at once. On the demand side, we must move actively toward the upgrading consumption of China and ASEAN, rather than waiting to be sourced from. On the supply side, we must connect Chinese equipment, technology and intermediate goods with local talent, land and certification capability, pushing cost down and quality up. Only when both ends are joined does a company stop taking orders passively and start negotiating terms. A factory that can show a Chinese buyer a certified, traceable line is no longer competing on price alone; it is competing on being the easier partner to keep.

What government and regional partners provide is certainty. The Budget's tax and financing measures, the rules of origin under RCEP and ACFTA 3.0, and the ASEAN–China–GCC corridor are instruments that turn "uncertain" into "calculable". The task for business is to learn to use them, and to use them early.

At this year's Conference we have deliberately moved the weight from the stage to the floor. Buyers sit opposite manufacturers. Technology providers sit beside the companies that will actually run their systems. Policymakers sit within earshot of the front line. We do not want a stack of memoranda that goes into a drawer once signed. We want orders that can still be followed up three months later, and partnerships that actually land on the ground.

For Malaysian enterprises, and especially for the small and medium firms that make up the base of our economy, that is where this Conference earns its keep: not in how many guests attend, but in how many of them leave with a name, a number and a next step.

Storms will not stop because we hold a conference. But a business can gain one more access road, simply because it met the person on the other side — and that, multiplied across a hall, is what a conference is for.

马来西亚-中国总商会总会长、
2026年马中企业家大会主席卢国祥先生
Mr Loo Kok Seong,
President, Malaysia-China Chamber of Commerce;
Conference Chairman, Malaysia-China Entrepreneurs Conference 2026

值此马中企业家大会隆重召开之际，我谨代表马来西亚—中国总商会，向莅临大会的各位嘉宾、向来自两国的企业家朋友，致以最诚挚的欢迎与感谢。今天所记录下的，不只是一场大会，更是两国企业携手同行的足迹。感谢首相与两国政府一直以来对商会工作的关心与支持。

本会成立于1990年，三十多年来只做一件事：做马中两国企业之间的一座桥。我们三度更名，如今在全马设有9个分会，拥有逾2,300家企业会员；自2011年创办马中企业家大会，已连续举办十六届，从厦门、成都、南京到贵阳，一年中国、一年马来西亚交替举办，一路走来，靠的不是口号，而是会员一单一单做出来的生意。

这个大会，从创办之初就是为中小企业而设的。我们深知，中小企业是我国经济的脊梁，它们贡献约四成的经济总量，雇佣近800万人，也就是全国一半的劳动力。它们的处境，就是国家经济的处境。我们尤其希望，青年企业家能在两国合作的浪潮中，找到属于自己的机会。

我们也要坦诚地说，中小企业如今面对的挑战不小：成本上升、融资不易、市场承压、转型艰难。为此，本会一方面向政府如实反映业界心声，感谢政府在2027年财政预算案中下调中小微企业所得税率、提高微型贷款与融资担保额度；另一方面，我们持续为会员办实事，对接、培训、考察、参展，为青年企业家搭台。

我们也衷心期盼，马中两国企业的合作，能够建立在双向与共赢之上：彼此成就，而非单方面挤压；良性竞争，而非以超低价厮杀。唯有如此，合作才能长久，友谊才能深厚。我们愿继续做那座桥，让更多中小企业，走得出去、也走得稳。

祝愿本届大会圆满成功，祝愿各位会员与朋友生意兴隆、身体健康、万事顺遂！也祝愿马中两国的情谊，如细水长流，日久而弥深。

On the occasion of the Malaysia-China Entrepreneurs Conference, I am honored, on behalf of the Malaysia-China Chamber of Commerce, to extend our warmest welcome and deepest thanks to every distinguished guest, and to our business friends from both countries. What today records is not merely a conference, but the footprints of enterprises from both nations walking forward together. We thank the Prime Minister and the Governments of both countries for their continued care and support for the Chamber's work.

Our Chamber was founded in 1990. For more than thirty years, we have done one thing: to be a bridge between Malaysian and Chinese enterprises. We have been renamed three times; today we have nine branches across the country, and more than 2,300 corporate members. Since we founded this Conference in 2011, it has been held sixteen consecutive times, from Xiamen, Chengdu and Nanjing to Guiyang, with a year organized in Malaysia, another year in China consecutively. Our journey has never rested on slogans. It has rested on the deals our members closed, one at a time.

This Conference was built for small and medium enterprises from the very beginning. We know well that SMEs are the backbone of our economy: they contribute about forty per cent of our economic output and employ close to eight million people, equivalent to half of our nation's workforce. Their condition is the nation's condition. We hope especially that young entrepreneurs will find their own opportunities in the tide of cooperation between our two countries.

We must also speak honestly: SMEs today face no small challenges, rising costs, difficult financing, market pressure and the hard road of transformation. So, we do two things. On one hand, we carry our members' honest views faithfully to the Government, and we thank the Government for cutting the MSME income tax rate and raising micro-financing and financing guarantee facilities in the 2027 Budget. On the other hand, we keep doing practical work for our members, business matching, training, trade missions and exhibitions; and we build a stage for young entrepreneurs.

We also sincerely hope that cooperation between Malaysian and Chinese enterprises will be built on two-way benefit: helping each other succeed rather than one-sided squeezing; healthy competition rather than a race to the bottom on price. Only then can cooperation last, and friendship deepen. We will continue to be that bridge, so that more SMEs can step out and step steadily.

I wish this year's Conference every success, and I wish all our members and friends prosperity, good health and every happiness. And may the friendship between Malaysia and China flow like a quiet stream, deepening with time.

2026年马中企业家大会工委会主席杨安泰先生
Mr. Ir. Yeo An Thai,
Organising Chairman,
Malaysia–China Entrepreneurs Conference 2026

值此大会开幕之际，我谨代表工委会，向马中两国政府、主办机构，向各位嘉宾与企业家朋友，致以最诚挚的欢迎与感谢。

本届大会以「千年商道，厚德载物」为主题。这八个字，不是修辞，而是一段有据可查的历史。

「千年」，说的是马中交往的厚度。早在一千三百多年前，唐代义净法师渡海求法，途经马来半岛，在羯茶（今吉打）居留近一年，并以文字记下古吉打王国的风貌——吉打州考古博物馆的馆史里至今写着：「没有义净的记录，就没有古吉打王国的历史。」而后，郑和七下西洋、五驻马六甲。从七世纪到十五世纪，从僧人到商船，这条路，走了千年。

「商道」，既是商路，也是商之道。它是丝绸之路、海上丝绸之路连接两地的贸易通道，更是做生意必须恪守的道理与道义——诚信为本、公平交易、义利并举。路可以越走越宽，但道不能越走越窄。商道之「道」，最终落在人心——人心信得过，生意才做得久。

「厚德载物」，语出《周易》：「地势坤，君子以厚德载物。」大地厚实而包容，故能承载万物；做人做事亦然，唯有厚积德行，方能承载更大的事业、更多的信任。对企业而言，德是立身之本，信是立业之基。

一场大会，从来不是几个人办成的。我要特别感谢全体工委会同仁的日夜付出，同时也感谢社会各界、赞助机构与媒体朋友的鼎力相助。是大家的合力，才有了今天的相聚。我们也希望，这场大会不只是一次相聚，更能成为两国企业彼此认识、彼此成就的起点。

愿我们以千年为鉴，以商道自律，以厚德相待，共载本届大会圆满成功！

On the occasion of the Conference's opening and the publication of this special issue, I extend, on behalf of the Organizing Committee, our warmest welcome and sincere thanks to the Governments of both countries, the organizers, and every guest and entrepreneur here today.

The theme of this year's Conference is “A Millennium of Trade, Built on Virtue”. These eight words are not rhetoric. They are recorded history.

“A thousand years” speaks to the depth of Malaysia-China ties. More than 1,300 years ago, the Tang-dynasty monk Yijing sailed in search of the Dharma and passed through the Malay Peninsula. He stayed nearly a year in Jiecha — present-day Kedah — and left the first written account of the ancient Kedah kingdom. To this day, the Kedah Archaeological Museum states in its own history: “Without Yijing's record, there would be no history of ancient Kedah.” Later came Zheng He, who made seven voyages and called at Melaka five times. From the seventh century to the fifteenth, from monks to merchant ships — this road has been walked for a thousand years.

“A business road” is both the road of trade and the way of business. It is the Silk Road and the Maritime Silk Road that linked our two lands; and it is also the principle and moral compass that commerce must uphold — integrity first, fair dealing, and the pursuit of profit alongside righteousness. The road may grow wider; the way must never grow narrower. In the end, the “way” of business rests on trust — when people trust you, your business will last.

“Carried by great virtue” comes from the Book of Changes: “The disposition of the earth is receptive; the gentleman, with ample virtue, carries all things.” The earth is solid and embracing and can bear all things. So, it is with people and with business: only by accumulating virtue can one carry greater undertakings and greater trust. For an enterprise, virtue is the foundation of character, and integrity the foundation of business.

No conference is ever built by a few. I thank especially every member of the Organizing Committee for their days and nights of dedication; as well as all sectors of society, our sponsors and media friends, for their generous help. It is this collective effort that has brought us together today. We also hope that this Conference will be more than a gathering — that it will be a starting point where enterprises of both countries come to know one another and to help one another succeed.

May we take the thousand years as our mirror, hold ourselves to the way of business, and treat one another with great virtue,together we wish this Conference every success.
